

REL 345: African American Religious History

Historical survey of the African American religious experience: African survivals, plantation missions, the "hush-arbor" church. African Methodism, black Baptists, urban sects, the church and civil rights, and black theology. Students in AAS 345 must complete an extra assignment.