

REL 347: Religion and the Conquest of America

The development of America through the contact between indigenous and colonial people's divergent religious understandings of land.