

REL 440: Modern Religious Thought

Examines conceptions of human being in modern religious thought in Europe and America. Themes may include God and the self; God, art, and delight; and religion and despair. Figures examined may include Kierkegaard, Douglass, Dostoevsky, Dinesen, and Baldwin. Repeatable one time, 6 credits maximum.