

"From Columbus to Wahoo: What They Don't Know and How It Hurts Us"

By Suzan Harjo

Suzan Shown Harjo (Cheyenne & Muscogee) is a prominent Native American leader in the arts, culture and policy. A poet, writer, curator and advocate, she has helped Native Peoples protect many sacred places and recover more than one million acres of land. She has led successful national campaigns for laws in four decades to promote and protect Native nations, sovereignty, children, arts, cultures, languages and repatriation. A former past Executive Director of the National Congress of American Indians, she is President of The Morning Star Institute, a national Native rights organization founded in 1984 and based in Washington, DC.

October 1, 2009

5:30 pm

Peter Graham Scholarly Commons in Bird Library

The event is free and open to the public.