REL 327 The celebration of the International Day of Yoga, put Yoga on the world stage but as a “secular” practice. Course will consider the history of contemporary yoga in the context of its origins in ancient India and in Europe and then in America. In what sense is Yoga religious and yet not religious? Why is yoga so popular? What new forms are happening right here in Syracuse?